SAINT JOSEPH, HUSBAND OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Joseph, someone once joked, was indeed the perfect husband: the only major character in Jesus’ story who never utters a word! But the Gospel recounts and the liturgy celebrates his silent witness of faith-filled deeds: “With a husband’s love he cherished Mary, the Virgin Mother of God; with fatherly care he watched over Jesus” (Preface of Saint Joseph, Sacramentary). Catholic devotion, therefore, hails him as patron-protector of the universal Church. Some cultures set a festive “Saint Joseph’s Table,” welcoming the poor and strangers to feast with family and friends. Tradition keeps March 19 as the anniversary of his death, which we presume was peaceful, with Jesus and Mary present. Thus, Catholics invoke Joseph as Patron of a Happy Death. Descended from David’s house, which God finished “building” through Joseph’s provision of a home for Mary and Jesus, he was, fittingly, a carpenter by trade; thus, patron of workers. Spring, nature’s rebirth, begins between his feast and Annunciation (March 25), appropriately, since Joseph’s silent obedience and Mary’s “Let it be done to me according to your word” (Luke 1:38) usher in humanity’s spiritual rebirth.

ST. PATRICK’S BREASTPLATE

St. Patrick’s prayer is a wonderful prayer for morning prayer and for spiritual preparedness. The following is only an excerpt of the prayer.

I arise today
Through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity,
Through belief in the Threeness,
Through confession of the Oneness of the Creator of creation.

I arise today
Through the strength of Christ’s birth with His baptism,
Through the strength of His crucifixion with His burial,
Through the strength of His resurrection with His ascension,
Through the strength of His descent for the judgment of doom.

I arise today, through
God’s strength to pilot me, God’s might to uphold me,
God’s wisdom to guide me, God’s eye to look before me,
God’s ear to hear me, God’s word to speak for me,
God’s hand to guard me, God’s shield to protect me,
God’s host to save me
From snares of devils, From temptation of vices,
From everyone who shall wish me ill, afar and near.

I arise today
Through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity,
Through belief in the Threeness,
Through confession of the Oneness of the Creator of creation.

CORONAVIRUS PRECAUTIONS

During this cold and flu season and the current situation with the coronavirus, all parishioners are reminded that those who are ill are not obliged to attend Mass and should stay home to recover. In response to the coronavirus outbreak, the following precautions have been taken at St. Lawrence Martyr Church:

- Please refrain from offering your hand to others at the sign of peace. A smile, the peace sign, and a heartfelt, “Peace be with you,” is suggested.
- Reception of Holy Communion will be given in the hand only and not on the tongue.
- The communal chalice with the Precious Blood of Christ will not be offered.
- Finger fonts by the entrances to the church have been emptied of Holy Water.
- Door handles to the church and tops of the pew backs will be wiped down daily. In addition to these precautions, all parishioners are reminded to use common sense and good hygiene.

We pray for the health and recovery of all who are ill.

GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGING DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF THE SCRIPTURE

We give the definition of ourselves over to so many things. We allow our society, friends, family, work, social groups, ethnicity, and even institutions define, classify, and color how we perceive ourselves. When we listen predominantly to the voices of others, we lose touch with what is happening within our own inner voice. If we listen carefully within, we can easily discover that we are in want and need. We know our incompleteness and also know that loneliness, sadness, and self-images can propel us outward in attempts to fill those gaps. We can become not only victims of our own prejudices but can find ourselves overly self-indulgent in things that can only satisfy for a short time, if at all.

It is no wonder that money and power are things that are so fervently sought after. As long as we can keep a steady supply going, the illusion of fulfillment and satisfaction can falsely persuade us as craftily as a master magician’s act. We live with illusions not truth. It is no wonder, then, that some of the wealthiest folks are also really the unhappiest. Whether we admit it, the lies we live and pursue will ultimately expose our superficiality. We all have to wrestle with who we are and what gives our lives purpose and meaning. Learn to listen more deeply, not to what others are saying about you, but to what God is echoing in your heart.

We can easily get confused and misunderstand, not only about who we are but who God is. Even the disciples and the Samaritan woman at the well missed the point Jesus was trying to make. There is only one Person who can satisfy the deepest yearnings and longings of our hearts — Jesus the Messiah. It is not the work of corporate America that will lead us to happiness or greatness but the work of the soul. We continue to resist acknowledging this and are happier in our world of misunderstanding and illusion. The life-giving water we truly need doesn’t come from the source of a well but from the Source of Life. Only God can reveal the truth of our sinfulness, the superficiality of our pursuits, and the illusions we hold so dear. Only Jesus can save us from ourselves and give us what we really need. If only our heads can catch up with where our hearts know they need to be, then will we find real contentment and life!

THIRST: Each time today’s Gospel story is read, I can’t help but think of the many television commercials I’ve seen depicting perspiring athletes lifting a beverage to their lips while the scorching sun beats down on them. Our culture has definite ideas about how to quench thirst. Today, those ideas are turned upside down. The Samaritan woman operates, initially, on the TV commercial level. She asks Jesus for the beverage to their lips while the scorching sun beats down on them. Our culture has definite ideas about how to quench thirst. Today, those ideas are turned upside down. The Samaritan woman operates, initially, on the TV commercial level. She asks Jesus for a small drink of water so that she will not have to keep coming to the well. Jesus then talks about what real thirst is, and how he, and he alone, can quench that thirst. Lent calls us to find those places deep within ourselves where we thirst. In our thirst, as did the Israelites, we cry out to God asking for springs of living water. Deep down we know that only the Lord can satisfy these thirsts.
As we journey together toward Easter, let us pray for one another. . . always pray for one another. Step into the silence, into the Lord's Presence and lift your heart to Him.

Your help is needed to see that every hour of every day there is someone present with Jesus in our Adoration Chapel. PLEASE sign in and out so we have a more accurate picture of the hours needing a committed Adorer.

REMINDER: If you come during the hours when the church is locked, you will need the code to enter the Chapel. We have asked that no one open the door in response to knocking. This is to insure the safety of all. Come to the Parish Office to receive the code.

The word "votive" comes from the Latin root "votum" meaning "vow," and when lit these candle symbolize our prayers, vows of prayer, or simply honor or express our gratitude to God for answering our prayers.

LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

“Is the Lord in our midst or not?” Have you ever found yourself asking this question? Finding God’s presence and truly encountering God are not always easy tasks. When we seek God only with our minds, we risk reducing God to simply an idea rather than meeting him as someone who is real and actually present to us. We all have to wrestle with who we are and what gives our lives purpose and meaning. We can often get confused and misunderstand not only who we are, but who God is. Even the disciples and the Samaritan woman at the well missed the point Jesus was trying to make. There is only one person who can satisfy the deepest yearnings and longings of our hearts. Only Jesus can lead us to truth and provide the water that can quench our thirst. Each of us, not only with our heads but with our hearts, must come to see that Jesus is the Savior of the world. It is only when we can honestly make this confession that we will know God is truly present.

PERPETUAL ADORATION

"I will be your strength"
Deep within I will plant my law;
Not on stone, but in your heart
Follow Me, I will bring you back;
You will be My own
And I will be your God.

- DAVID HAAS, "DEEP WITHIN"

BE AWARE OF POISON DANGERS IN THE HOME

More than 90% of all poisonings happen in homes. Parents should know the top risks for children (especially children who still put things in their mouths!) and work to eradicate them. Lead poisoning is high on the list, especially for older homes of household cleaners like laundry or dishwasher detergent pods. For more information, visit: https://www.nsc.org/home-safety/safety-topics/other-poisons
With disappointment and caution, the PANCAKE BREAKFAST PLANNED FOR SUNDAY, MARCH 22ND in support Get On The Bus HAS BEEN CANCELLED

Thank you for your support and understanding as we make these unprecedented decisions. Monetary donations may still be made if you would like to support Get On The Bus. Cash or checks payable to Get On The Bus may be brought to the Parish Office or dropped in the offertory or green baskets in the church.

During the upcoming Lenten season, let us ask the Holy Spirit to guide our thoughts, words and deeds throughout each day.

Get On The Bus unites children with their fathers and mothers in prison. Often, this is the only opportunity for these children to see a parent who is incarcerated.

Get On The Bus offers a priceless opportunity - a mother’s touch, a father’s hug, a family photo, a private conversation, and a connection to hope and healing.

It is a Mother’s Day event to reunite children with their incarcerated mothers. These children join many others in a yearly trek sponsored by GOTB.

Our goal is to raise $5,700 to sponsor the bus. Please help us raise funds.

$100 - Child Angel
$350 - Family Supporter
$550 - Bus Benefactor
$2,000 - Event Partner

Please look for the Get on The Bus Donation Basket. Any donation will help. Please make checks payable to GET ON THE BUS. Any questions? Please call the Parish Office - (310)540-0329.
