WINTER COLD AND FLU SEASON

During this cold and flu season and the current situation with the coronavirus outbreak, all parishioners are reminded to use common sense and good hygiene. Those who are ill are not obliged to attend Mass and should stay home to recover.

If you are not already accustomed to do so, please receive Holy Communion in the hand, not the tongue, during this cold and flu season.

If you are feeling ill or think you may have been exposed to a virus, please refrain from partaking of the Precious Blood of Christ from the communal chalice.

During this time, we ask that you please refrain from offering your hand to others at the sign of peace. A smile, the peace sign, and a heartfelt, "Peace be with you," should suffice.

We pray for the health and recovery of all who are ill.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGING DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF THE SCRIPTURE

Psychology has taught us a great deal about family dynamics and how we have come to be the person we find ourselves to be. We are comprised of such a mixed bag of blessings and obstacles with their graced moments and sinful ones. Think back on the journey of your life and how the many different and varied choices that you made influenced the direction your life. If you didn’t go on that first date with your spouse, who would be beside you today? If you chose to be in one place rather than another, what would have happened to the course your life has taken? We are on such a wonderful, exciting journey. What is most incredible and awesome is that we are not alone! God is with us. He inspires, heals, opens doors, and calls us every moment of our lives. The very life we have is due only to Him.

We can all sit down and list adjectives describing who we are. One may find him or herself more artistic than another or quicker with wit. We have unique gifts and talents and have the great gift of free will, which we treasure. Our histories come with more baggage for some and less hurdles for others, but we all have to find our way through the path we are on. However, have you ever given much thought to who you really are? That question has more merit than may at first appear.

We know ourselves as we live out our earthly journey. But do we know our heavenly self? What we know here is only one small part of who God has made us to be. The disciples really thought they knew Jesus until they went up the mountain. We also may think we know our true selves, too. We know that in eternal life we shall not only see God, but become like Him. Who will you be? What surprise do you think God has for you.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Have you ever given much thought to who you were really created to be? Our lives are the product of various circumstances, choices, predetermined scenarios, and a whole host of events and inherited baggage. All of these components come together and form the person we understand ourselves to be. Jesus knew who he was and who he was becoming. He showed his transfigured self to his disciples on a high mountain and revealed to them who he was really meant to be. The weaknesses, imperfections, fears, and impressions that we carry with us often color our choices and hinder us from really seeing the greater picture of who we are. What do you imagine your transfigured self to be? Jesus promises a new life in heaven. Have you ever given much thought to what that may mean for you?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The 6 Characteristics of an Everyday Stewardship

1st Week of Lent – Prayerful

When my children were younger, they could make me laugh and sometimes cry. I would have conversations about animals, nature, outer space, and so many amazing things in life. I would play with them one day and then work to bandage a boo-boo the next. There were so many dynamics to our relationship. However, one aspect was my favorite. It was when one of them would snuggle up next to me on the couch silently, often leading to sleep. There was no better feeling, and I didn’t want to move for anything. It is crazy to think of all the things we would do together, and my favorite was when we essentially were doing nothing.

Do you think God desires a portion of you? Without a doubt, He wants all of you: the good, the bad, and the ugly. Walking with Him daily is so important, and we can never become the disciples and stewards we need to be without a deepening relationship. Yet, prayer is not just talking and listening. It is also being. We sometimes seek to communicate so much and do so many things that we forget the value of stewardship of presence. The giving of ourselves completely to another often requires us to simply be with that person. We feel their presence. We rest in their being. No words are needed because words would destroy the moment. This is what we are called to in a relationship with God. This is good stewardship because it is about giving of our very presence to God and receiving strength from that resting in Him. Sometimes, all we need is to snuggle up to our God on the couch.

LENTEN RETREAT

"By Your Wounds We Are Healed"

Saturday, March 21 | 9:00 am - 12:30 pm
with Fr. Mark Warnstedt, Caterina Krai and Music by René Ayala

What does it truly mean to walk humbly with our Lord Jesus during Lent? What does it mean to join all of our hurts, brokenness and wounds with his? How do we give him everything and be open to the healing Jesus desires for us?

We hope you can join us as we reflect and discover the transformation and healing power of the wounds of Christ.

For more information, please contact Caterina Krai at 310-316-0961

CHANGE

Lent is all about change and change is usually not easy. In order to change we have to leave something behind. Today we hear about a very old man who decides to answer God’s call. Abram experiences a tremendous amount of change when he leaves everything behind, risking it all for God’s promise. Jesus changes, is transfigured, right before the eyes of his disciples. The Lenten scriptures issue the call for us to change, to be transfigured, so that we, too, will soon share in the glory of God. What is it that the Lord is asking us to leave behind? Are we willing to take the risk for the promise made by God? These questions are at the heart of the Lenten journey of conversion.

VISITING WITH JESUS THIS LENT

"Make time to be silent." - ST. JOHN VIANNEY

WHEN ENTERING & EXITING the Adoration Chapel through the outside (west) door of the chapel, please hold the knob so the door shuts quietly. This is out of respect both for those who are in the chapel praying and for Jesus.

AFTER-HOURS VISITORS to the Adoration Chapel: It is necessary to have the code for opening the outside (west) door to the Chapel. This can be obtained from the Parish Office. We have asked that no one open the door to those without the code after hours. This is for the safety of all concerned and for the safety and protection of the Blessed Sacrament.

PLEASE SIGN IN when you make a visit (either as the Adorer committed to a specific time or as a drop-in visitor who is welcome any time, of course). Our goal is to have someone present with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament at all times. If you are making a visit and no one is present, it is especially important to sign in/out. By doing so, you are not making a commitment to that time slot. Your doing this just lets us know that Jesus is in good company.

While we have many Adorers committed to specific hours throughout the week, we are still in need of many more especially on the weekends and most especially on Sunday.

Please give prayerful consideration to making a commitment - not to St. Lawrence Martyr Church but to our dear and loving Lord. You will never regret time spent with Him.

To make a commitment or to ask questions, please call 310-540-0329, Ext. 388. Someone will return your call.

Women In Transition
Our lives change day to day, moment to moment. Our lives feel full one day, empty the next; happy one day, sad the next. Change happens. We can't stop it. Sometimes we feel we are in the midst of chaos; that our lives are spinning out of control; that we are the only ones who experience these emotions.
In the group Women in Transition, we learn that we are not alone; that others are most likely spinning in similar orbits. We discuss with faith and humor our challenges and the comforting ordinariness of our lives. We meet the 2nd Sunday of the month at 10:30 am in the Pastoral Center. Our next meeting is today, March 8th. Hope you can join us!
For questions or more info, please contact Didi Egnatuk at 310-540-0329, ext. 540 or by email at i.egnatuk@gmail.com

During the upcoming Lenten season, let us ask the Holy Spirit to guide our thoughts, words and deeds throughout each day.

Get On The Bus unites children with their fathers and mothers in prison. Often, this is the only opportunity for these children to see a parent who is incarcerated.

Get On The Bus offers a priceless opportunity - a mother’s touch, a father’s hug, a family photo, a private conversation, and a connection to hope and healing.

It is a Mother’s Day event to reunite children with their incarcerated mothers. These children join many others in a yearly trek sponsored by GOTB.

Our goal is to raise $5,700 to sponsor the bus.
Please help us raise funds.
$100 - Child Angel
$350 - Family Supporter
$550 - Bus Benefactor
$2,000 - Event Partner

This Ash Wednesday, please look for the Green Donation Baskets for Get On The Bus. Any donation will help. Please make checks payable to GET ON THE BUS. Any questions? Please call the Parish Office - (310)540-0329.

Vision and Skills for Forming Adult Missionary Disciples

SATURDAY, MARCH 14
9:00 am to 5:00 pm
and MONDAY, MARCH 16, 23 & 30
7:00 to 9:00 pm
SLM PARISH HALL

Whether we are new to ministry or long-time ministers, we can always gain a clearer sense of mission and new tools for our service in the Church.

We will discuss some big questions:
• What is evangelization?
• Why evangelize?
• What is missionary discipleship?
• What is the relationship between evangelization and catechesis?
• Who are adults today?
• What are principles of good adult faith formation?

We will also learn practical skills for:
• Hospitality
• Small-group facilitation
• Threshold conversations (conversations on where someone is in relationship with God)
• Prayer facilitation (i.e. lectio divina and spontaneous verbal prayer)
• Testimony
• Discernment of gifts

This training is for anyone who ministers to adults, or who simply wishes to learn and pray; this training fulfills the Adult Faith Formation Specialization for basic catechist certification.

MILITARY CARE PACKAGES: Thank you to all who donated to the CFM Military Packing event. We were able to put together 70 care packages to send to our military overseas. Packages include Girl Scout cookies, books, magazines, toys, T-shirts, socks, toiletries and dental supplies, candy and lots of snacks. Unfortunately, we are short on funds to ship the packages. Those wishing to contribute additional funds for shipping can drop them off in the Parish Office. Please make checks out to STLM CFM.

Thank you again for your support of our troops.

TALK ABOUT CHAT ROOM DANGERS WITH YOUR TEEN
Online chat rooms are great places for people to connect over shared interests and ideas. But for young children and teenagers who may not be internet-savvy, they’re also a great place for predators to lay groundwork. In a chat room, anyone can be whomever they want — and predators hide behind personas of friends. Talk to your child about online safety rules, such as never agreeing to meet in person and never providing personal and identifying information. Review chats frequently to ensure that your child is engaging in safe conversations. For more tips on chat room safety, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Exposing the Dangers of Internet Chat Rooms”: https://www.virtusonline.org/virtus/printarticle.cfm?a=280&theme=0
